

I understand you are considering regulations requiring copy preventing technology to be added to new TVs and tuners. Please make sure that these will always allow users to record shows to watch at a later time. Due to our busy schedule, we regularly videotape our favorite shows and watch them later (sometimes weeks later) when we have time. We would hate to lose this ability.